Stamp Of Logic On A Postal Ruling

Two young postmen, who were dismissed by the Annandale, Va., postmaster for wearing their hair down to their shoulders, have been ordered reinstated by the Post Office's Board of Appeals and Review. After hearing the case, the board ruled that "management has not presented clear evidence or set forth sound reasons showing why specific limitation of maximum hair length to one inch above the shirt collar... is necessary in order to promote the efficiency or best interests of the postal service."

The ruling has, we think, the stamp of logic and of common sense. Shoulder-length tresses are not our bag, but so long as the male gets the mail through what difference does it make? — Anderson (S.C.) Independent

No Sponsor Yet for Fair Trade Bill

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The question for a sponsor for Gov. Dale Bumpers' bill to repeal the "fair trade" liquor law goes on. Sen. Max Howell of Little Rock bowed out Tuesday as a prospective sponsor. Bumpers said someone else will be sought.

The bill has been in a Senate committee since Jan. 21, which was the day the measure was approved by the House 85-13. Later Tuesday, Bumpers said he had considered asking Sen. Bill H. Walmesley of Batesville to handle the bill, since Walmesley had expressed interest in getting a vote on the bill.

However, Walmesley and Sen. Nick Wilson of Pocahontas introduced in the Senate Tuesday their own bill to repeal the "fair trade" statutes.

In view of that, Bumpers said, someone else probably will be asked to handle the administration's bill.

Bumpers' version of the bill also prohibits the growth of chain liquor outlets and the advertising of liquor prices.

The funds will be added to a $200,000 grant from the Ozarks Regional Commission to help construct a job training center at Pocahontas to be called the Black River Vocational-Technical School. Total cost of the facility will be $1 million.

HONG KONG (AP) — American author Edgar Snow says Chinese Communist party chairman Mao Tse-tung "is in excellent health and mentally alert."

Snow, who crossed from Communist China into Hong Kong Sunday, talked with newsmen at the airport before leaving for home in Zurich Tuesday.

Commenting on Peking-American relations, Snow said: "The Chinese know well the distinction between the American people and U.S. imperialism—that war in Vietnam."

Retirement Bill Passed by House

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — The state House of Representatives approved Tuesday a bill to increase the retirement benefits of legislators and establish special retirement benefits for elected constitutional officers.

As approved by the Senate, the bill would have provided even greater increases in legislative retirement benefits, but the House cut the increase to $151 per month before approving the bill.

The Senate concurred late Tuesday in the House amendment, completing legislative action on the bill, which was sponsored originally by Sen. Q. Byrum Hurst of Hot Springs. There was little debate on the bill in either legislative chamber.

Hale, Hearty Heroes of Moon Landing Are on Way to Samoa

ABOARD USS NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Apollo 14's moon heroes, healthy and snug in a quarantine trailer, steamed aboard this carrier toward Samoa today after safely completing man's third lunar landing mission.

From Samoa they'll be flown to the Manned Spacecraft Center near Houston, arriving early Friday. They'll get a glimpse of their families, then continue their isolation against possible moon germs until Feb. 26.

Alan B. Shepard Jr., Edgar D. Mitchell and Stuart A. Roosa parachuted to a precision landing in the South Pacific Tuesday, climaxing a lunar voyage which scientists say will greatly enrich man's knowledge of the moon and space agency officials hail as perfect.

The spacemen hit the gentle tropic waters less than four miles from this helicopter carrier and quickly were hoisted aboard by helicopter. They were just seven-tenths of a mile from the landing target.

Hundreds of white-clad sailors cheered and snapped pictures. "Welcome Apollo 14" banners unfurled and a band played "Stars and Stripes Forever" as the three smiling spacemen walked smartly from the copter to the quarantine trailer.

On the remote possibility that they returned harmful germs from the moon, Shepard, Mitchell and Roosa wore protective masks that prevented their exhaling into the surrounding atmosphere.

Dr. William Carpentier, a National Aeronautics and Space Administration flight surgeon who is in the quarantine with them, reported that a preliminary medical examination showed them all to be in good health.

The City of Hope, one of five entered in the 8,000-25,000 population bracket in the Arkansas Community Development Program competition, was judged Tuesday. The program is sponsored by the Arkansas Chamber of Commerce, AIDC and electrical companies that serve the state. Some $5,050 in cash awards will be made to winners.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. George D. Aiken called today on the nations of Southeast Asia to convene their own international conference, in Asia, to bring peace to the Indochinese nations of Laos, Cambodia and Vietnam. He suggested that Russia take part in the conference. Aiken, of Vermont, the senior Republican in both the Senate and its Foreign Relations Committee, said: "Formal peace among the parties in Indochina will only come as a result of agreement among themselves."

"It cannot be imposed by others," he told the Senate. Noting various past U.S. and British peace initiatives, Aiken said "the day has passed when the major problems of Asia can be settled in some European city."

Aiken said the conference he seeks should include Japan, Communist China and Russia, adding "I cannot believe that Russia has of late had a vested

Fire Blight Takes Toll Every Year

Fire Blight takes its toll every year, because fruit orchard owners, fail to protect the trees from diseases and insects, says Cayce B. Smith, associate county Extension agent of Hempstead County.

Fire Blight reduces production and is unsightly. Orchard owners can prevent this loss if a timely spray schedule is followed.

A general purpose spray is available at most seed stores. Ordinarily, this spray contains three or four different materials, and dosage depends upon the percentage of each material present in the mixture.

A good general purpose spray can be made at home, says Smith. To make 3 gallons of spray, use 9 tablespoons of Carbaryl 50 per cent wettable powder, 6 tablespoons of Malathion 25 per cent wettable powder, and 9 tablespoons of 50 per cent Captain W wettable powder. The material should be measured and thoroughly mixed in the sprayer immediately before use.

Sprays are best applied when the wind is not blowing. All foliage and fruit should be covered with the spray.

Contact your County Extension Office if you need assistance.

Garbage Collection Fee Doubled

The Board of City Directors last night ordered the rates for the Health Program raised to provide enough money to cover the operation of the Health Program and to provide money for equipment that will have to be brought to meet the requirements of the State Pollution Control Commission.

The city was recently ordered to stop burning any refuse at the dump ground and that all refuse must be buried. The city health department had been burning all combustible material, and burying the ashes and all other trash and waste. The new regulations mean that there will be 5 or 6 times as much digging and covering at the dump ground as the previous method required.

The city is faced with buying an estimated $80,000 worth of new machinery. A new drag line and dozer will be required to handle the land-fill in the method now required by the Pollution Control Commission.

After a study of the total expenses and revenues received from health program charges, it showed that $45,000 a year in additional revenue would be required to handle the entire health program, most of which is the cost of handling trash and garbage disposal. To provide the additional revenue, the twice weekly health program rates will have to be set at $3.00 per month per residential unit and the commercial charges will have to be increased almost 50 per cent over the present charges.

Ky Threatens Quake Leaves 42 Dead, Crack in Dam Watched

By GEORGE ESPER

Associated Press Writer
SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese troops reported today they had reached Sepone, the North Vietnamese supply base 25 miles inside southern Laos.

The troops moved in apparently with little or no opposition in the deepest penetration of Laos since the drive opened Monday. Engineers were reported rebuilding Sepone's air strip.

About 2,000 more South Vietnamese troops crossed into Laos during the day and it was disclosed Vice President Nguyen Cao Ky had urged a drive into North Vietnam to strike at enemy bases.

U.S. and South Vietnamese helicopters lifted the fresh Saigon troops across the border, raising the number in southern Laos to more than 10,000, field reports said.

Vietnam Press, the government's news agency, quoted Ky as saying that if necessary South Vietnamese forces may cross the 17th parallel into North Vietnam to flush out supply bases in the area.

The agency said Ky made the threat in accepting a gift from Vietnamese pilots who took part in the first bombing of North Vietnam in 1965. Ky is also commander of the South Vietnamese air force and a native of North Vietnam.

Informed sources said several battalions of the South Vietnamese force that pushed into Laos Monday had advanced along east-west Route 9 to areas north and south of Sepone, a main North Vietnamese transshipment point and base area on the Ho Chi Minh trail.

The town 25 miles from the Vietnamese border has been reported virtually deserted, and there were no immediate reports of any fighting there. Nor was there any word of what the South Vietnamese found in the way of enemy supplies. The aim of the operation is to choke off the North Vietnamese troops and supplies moving down the network of jungle trails to South Vietnam and Cambodia.

The Saigon government reported two fights today across the border along Route 9. A spokesman said 33 North Vietnamese and six South Vietnamese were killed and 17 South Vietnamese were wounded.

The spokesman said the fighting occurred inside Laos southwest and west of Lang Vei but gave no distances.

A Welcome Warming Trend Expected

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A welcome warming trend began this morning in Arkansas and is expected to continue through Thursday.

Temperatures this morning were in the mid teens to mid 20s compared to sub zero readings Tuesday morning.

Highs today were forecast in the 40s and 50s and temperatures Thursday may push into the low 60s. By comparison, highs Tuesday were in the 20s and 30s.

The movement of a high pressure system to the east is producing the warming trend.

No precipitation is forecast through Thursday, but the extended outlook indicates the possibility of rain back in the state by Sunday. Mild conditions are expected to prevail in the state by the latter part of the week.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Authorities kept a wary eye on a cracked reservoir dam and probed wreckage of a ruined hospital for bodies today in the wake of an earthquake that dealt death and destruction to Southern California.

Forty-two deaths were reported, nine of them heart attack victims. More than 1,000 persons were reported injured.

Officials said 25 persons were missing, some buried in the rubble of two collapsed buildings at a Veterans Administration hospital in the hard-hit west end of the populous San Fernando Valley.

Twenty-three bodies had been found in the hospital wreckage; 45 persons were rescued.

So heavy and so interlocked were huge chunks of concrete from the virtually leveled three-story structures that rescuers said it might be another day or more before all victims could be reached.

Although cries of "Help me! Help me!" could be heard Tuesday night, authorities said there was little likelihood of more survivors being found. The bodies of five persons were extricated in the night and early morning hours.

The shock at 6:01 a.m. Tuesday was centered 26 miles northwest of downtown Los Angeles, crumpled much of the concrete facing on the 150-foot-high dam of Van Norman Lakes, the city's largest reservoir, and cracked its main structure of earth fill.

As water experts began draining it, police ordered an evacuation Tuesday night of some 80,000 persons in a 20-square-mile area of the San Fernando Valley which would be in the path of flood waters should the dam break. Officials said that barring a strong new aftershock, it should hold.

The initial shock and lesser aftershocks caused damage likely to be reckoned ultimately in the hundreds of millions. Hundreds of commercial buildings and factories were damaged, along with uncounted homes, highways, bridges and public buildings. Los Angeles County estimated loss to its buildings alone of $125 million, with 427 damaged structurally and 42 evacuated.

Gov. Ronald Reagan surveyed the damage and said, "It's shocking. When you look at this you feel pretty helpless."

Robert E. Noel, a custodian at the threatened reservoir dam, was at his home near the base of the structure when the quake hit.

"It was thumpin' and jumpin' and knocked everything out of our kitchen," he said. "It didn't matter where I put my feet, the floor wasn't there."

A big cleanup already was under way. In downtown Los Angeles and in communities in the San Fernando Valley, whose western edge is but 10 miles from the quake's center, the glass and bricks and crumbled mortar that littered streets and yards were being scooped up and carted away.

Several major freeways remained closed because of crumpled paving or fallen overpasses.

Legislators Talk About Extension

By BILL SIMMONS
Associated Press Writer
LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The current legislative session probably will have to be extended, at least for a few weeks, a number of legislators said Tuesday.

The regular 60-day session reached its halfway point Tuesday.

"We're halfway through in terms of our allotted time, but we haven't even come close to being halfway through the work we've got to do," Sen. Morrell Gathright of Pine Bluff said.

Major matters that lie ahead include Gov. Dale Bumpers' tax proposals and the budget bills that will follow.

"We'll need at least two weeks for budget bills after action on the tax bills," said Rep. B. D. "Doug" Brandon of Little Rock.

Sen. Clarence E. Bell of Parkin thought there was little chance the legislature could finish its business on time, especially if a defeat is dealt to Bumpers' income tax bill.

The Senate and House Revenue and Taxation committees held a hearing Tuesday on the income tax proposal, the first of Bumpers' tax measures to get committee consideration.

A vote on the proposal is unlikely before the last of this week. The schedule of hearings on the other bills will not permit votes on some of them until after next week.

Bell is considering the possibility of introducing a bill to raise the state sales tax from the current 3 per cent rate.

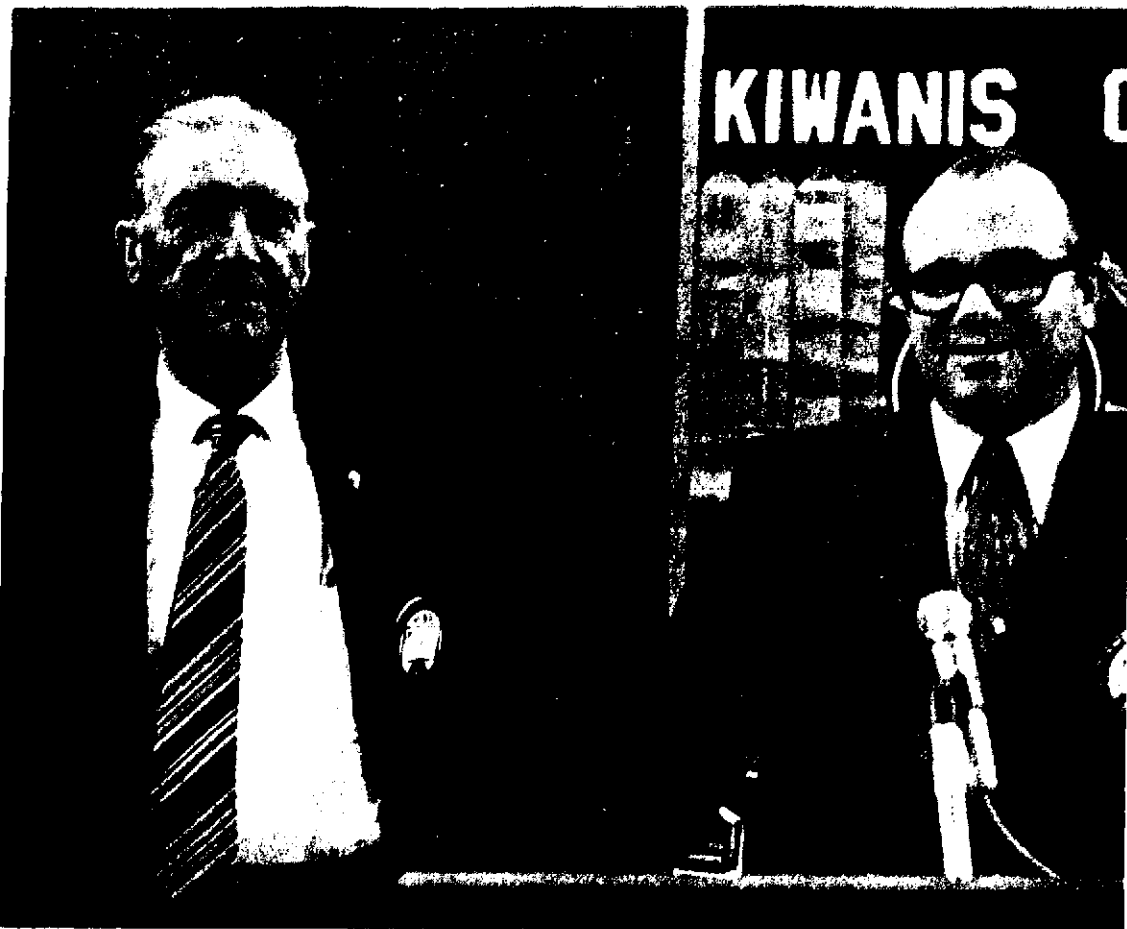

Forrest Rozzell, executive director of the Arkansas Education Association, said this week that only a sales tax rate increase would provide enough money to satisfy AEA demands.

Bell, however, probably would not introduce a sales tax proposal unless the income tax bill is defeated. The bill needs support of three-fourths of the members in each legislative body to be passed.

A sales tax increase may be approved by a bare majority of either legislative chamber.

More than one club in the Mo-Ark District has "adopted" one or more Armenian children who could not attend grammar school were it not for the $30.00 per child being provided by those clubs. These transactions are handled through C A R E.

Mr. Hamilton stated that throughout the world where Kiwanis Clubs operate they operate for real in community service. They are not just meeting and eating clubs. Guests at Tuesday's meeting were Jessie Duckett and Jim Cole of Hope, Jim Allen of El Dorado, and Key Clubbers Parker Powell and Ronnie Massenelli. Jerry Westmoreland was introduced as the newest Kiwanis Club member.

ber. The effect of the bill is to increase from $131 to $262 the monthly benefits for retired former members of the General Assembly and to enable constitutional officers to retire at full salary.

In other action Tuesday:

—The Senate completed legislative approval of Gov. Dale Bumpers' consumer protection bill.

—The House began the process of reconsideration of the administration's merit system proposal, which had been rejected Monday, but delayed action because of a filibuster by Rep. Boyce Alford of Pine Bluff.

—The Senate approved a bill to authorize the State Police to acquire hospitalization and medical insurance protection for uniformed employees.

—The House rejected a resolution by Sen. Virgil T. Fletcher of Benton to make the "Arkansas Waltz" the official state waltz.

—The House approved a bill by Sen. Knox Nelson of Pine Bluff to require emergency lighting and power and other safety features in hotels, motels and multiple occupancy buildings of three floors or more.

—The House also approved a bill by Sen. W. K. Ingram of West Memphis to enlarge the state Parks, Recreation and Travel Commission from seven to 11 members.

After beating the merit system bill Monday, the House voted 70-23 Tuesday to reconsider the bill, which would set up procedures for hiring, training, promoting, dismissing and suspending employees in about 7,000 state jobs not now covered by the merit system.

The measure probably will come up for a vote this week.

The retirement bill was approved 72-1. Rep. Ode Maddox of Oden sponsored the amendment, which he said reduced the retirement benefits provided in the bill from $324 monthly to $262 monthly.

Hurst had told the Senate that the bill would raise the benefits only from $131 to $162 monthly.

The elected constitutional officers would retire at salaries of $10,000 annually for governor, $6,000 annually for attorney general, $5,000 annually for all other posts except lieutenant governor, which would have $2,500 annually.

The bill would also permit legislators to draw benefits at age 60 with 10 years of service, 55 with 15 years and 50 with 18 years. Constitutional officers could retire with 10 years service at age 65 and 20 years at age 60.

61, professor of psychology at Rutgers University and author of several books and numerous articles on psychology, died Tuesday.

started last fall. The health program fee lacked nearly $20,000 covering the cost of operation of the department during 1970. The new rates are set high enough to cover the present operating deficit and provide for equipment and expenses to fully comply with the state regulations.

The Board, in reviewing the operation of the health department for last year, were unanimous in their opinion that this service should pay its own way. Other resources used to meet the cost of this operation must be used for street, fire, police, and other services that must be performed, and which do not provide revenue to sustain their operation.

In other action, the Board ordered that the mowing and maintenance of Cave Hill Cemetery be taken over by the labor force that has been maintaining Rose Hill Cemetery. Cave Hill Cemetery, which has been operated by the Cave Hill Cemetery Association, has not received much help from the city. The Cemetery Association has been collecting money from owners of cemetery lots, but it has never collected enough money for adequate maintenance. The cemetery association will continue to function, and they believe that their collections will be enough to provide the cost of tools and equipment, together with some permanent improvements.

HE PUT HER THROUGH RING-ER

Dear Helen:
On a trip to Europe I met this seemingly wonderful romantic man and we became engaged. He was temporarily short of funds, so I bought the ring ($1235.00). He noticed a diamond was loose, so he took it to the jewelers.

Then I was called home by illness in my late husband's family.

It has been nearly a month now, and I can't get in touch with Jacques. The jeweler informed me he picked up the ring. Oh yes, I forgot to say I gave Jacques the money to make the purchase (so he wouldn't be embarrassed). He gave me an I.O.U.

I can't believe his love was a lie. I keep hoping he is on his way to the States so we can be married. Is there a chance, or am I a - FOOLISH WIDOW Dear Widow:

Will John Wayne go Jane Fonda's next bail? Will Betty Friedan join the Happy Housewives Sewing Circle?

Sorry, but I'm afraid that's about how much hope you have of seeing Jacques or your ring again, unless the gendarmes apprehend him. - H.

Dear Helen:
I'm trying to phrase this so it will fit into a family newspaper. (NOTE FROM H: You had a little trouble there, but I censored a bit).

Are all husbands this way or is it only mine? He figures it's dumb to merely put his arm around me or give me an unexpected kiss. These are always accompanied by "roving hands."

Now this doesn't mean he only gets affectionate WHEN. But it's just that he can't seem to touch me without (as the kids say) going to "second or third base." He can't say "hello" without getting fresh.

Not that I'm anti-sex. We communicate just great and we're wholeheartedly in love. But the kitchen, with company just around the corner, is more for a platonic pat, sort of.

How do you get it across to a man, without hurting his feelings of manliness, that being close in a friendly way is important too? When I tell him, he thinks I'm rejecting him. He can't see that he's making me feel like a mere sex object.

At odd moments I would just love to have my husband hug me—period; kiss me on the ear—period; hold my hand—period. This, practiced often, would arouse me much more than the tweeking and poking and exploring that he thinks is "sexy" - what married people expect. Do other wives feel this way about husbands who are this way? - ARDENT BUY ANNOYED.

Dear A but A:
According to my mail, many husbands are this way, and many wives can't understand why they shun the small friendly demonstrations of affection that means so much to women. NOTE TO MEN: Look fellas, "first base" is forever important to a wife who never feels more wanted than when her thoroughly married husband reaches out to hold her hand at the movies, or gives her a hug and kiss—period (when he isn't leaving for or coming home from work.) - H.

Dear Helen:
Now I know you are depraved. Imagine saying nudists can be decent! If people go nude they are hussies and hedonists and lechers. That woman who lived next door to people who swim nude should move, before her children get contaminated.

If you had the right kind of morals you would turn these people in, not tell the mother "If you don't like skinny-dipping, stay out of their backyard." Of course you won't print this. Immoral people never listen to what good people have to say. - INCENSED

Dear Incensed:
I listen, I print, but I don't always buy what some of you have to say. To each his own beliefs. - H.

Golden Age Group Meets

Twenty-one members of the Golden Age Club answered the roll call at the meeting held in the Douglas building Thursday, February 4. All joined in singing "Pack Up Your Troubles" followed with prayer by the Rev. G. W. Hooten. Mrs. Myrtle Vaughn gave the devotion by reading John 1:1-15.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Dora Worthen performed her duties as secretary-treasurer. Plans were made for a representative from the Hobby Shop in Texarkana to be a guest of the club on February 18. A special clean-up kitchen committee appointed for that date is made up of Mrs. Hooten, Mrs. Chamberlain, Mrs. Worthen and Mrs. Vaughn.

Mrs. Ola Smith demonstrated making beautiful flowers from colored plastic egg cartons. Mr. Hogue won the door prize. During the social hour, cake cookies and soft drinks were served, and games and visitation were also enjoyed.

Ashdown in Second Win Over Hope

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

In two games at Ashdown last night, the Ladycats came from behind late in the game to down the Pantherettes, 46-42, while the Bobcats had their troubles in a controversial second game and came away with a 57-44 loss.

In the first game, the Ladycats fell behind early, but field goals by Betty Rodden and Dee Singleton knotted the score at four all.

Singleton banked in three more goals to give Hope an 11-6 with 2:55 left in the quarter. A stolen ball layup by Janet McCain and three points by Rodden, moved the Ladycats into the second quarter with a 16-12 margin.

Taking the tipoff pass down to score with only six seconds ticked off, Rodden also sank the foul throw for a 19-12 lead, but the Ladycats saw their lead dip and could only get two more points, on a bank shot by Singleton, as Ashdown tied the score at halftime, 21 all.

Coming back out onto the court after a brief halftime show, the Ladycats started cold, only getting three points in the first three minutes.

With 4:10 left in the period, Singleton hit a couple of baskets from underneath, after Ashdown had taken an eight point lead, to pull back within four.

McCain hit a free throw and Singleton banked a two pointer in at the buzzer, but the Pantherettes still had the lead moving into the last period, 36-31.

Although Ashdown received the ball first, Hope began building up steam, and soon knotted the score at 38 all, after Rodden sank two charity throws with 4:22 left.

Tied up two more times, the Ladycats clinched victory on a Tayup by Singleton and two free shots by Rodden.

Singleton led Hope with 22 points, followed by Rodden with 16, and McCain hitting eight.

Moving to the second game, the Bobcats hit late foul trouble and with the cold free throw shooting, just couldn't stay close in the last quarter.

With the score being tied five times in the first quarter, the Bobcats finally hit two points with 53 seconds left, to take a 12-10 lead into the second period. Parker Powell and John Dudley had put Hope in an early 6-4 lead, and after Lynn Norton hit with 3:33 left, the Cats only hit two more goals, both by Dudley.

With Norton taking the tipoff in for a two pointer, Dudley ripped off four straight for a 18-12 lead. Norton, Dudley, and Powell, proceeded to hit the rest of the Cat's scoring, for a 23-21, half-time margin, after Donnie Mills had kept the Panthers close.

Passing to Dudley for a two-pointer at the outset of the third period, Hope had a four point lead, but baskets by Steve Walker and Donnie Mills knotted the score at 25 all. However, with 5:25 left, Powell hit two field goals and Dudley sank one, as Hope held a 31-28 margin, entering the last stanza.

Hope now hit trouble and short cold streaks, to end up on the short end.

Two opening goals by Dudley kept the Cats in front, 35-34, but, with 5:52 left, Mills hit the go ahead basket for Ashdown. With the Bobcats unable to score for two minutes, Ashdown built up a 49-36 lead.

Three points by Dudley and a jumpshot by Ronnie Massanelli with 1:30 left, set the score at 52-40, Ashdown leading, and only Charles Frazier and Bill Rowland could score any more. Dudley hit 24 points for Hope, while Powell and Norton hit six each.

Thursday night, the Kittycats travel to Lewisville for their district tournament, while the Bobcats, B-Bruins, and Bobkittens, go to Magnolia Friday night.

The Bears held a 48-42 lead over the Porkers at the end of the first half and seemed to be on their way to an easy victory when they piled up a 78-62 lead with 9:50 remaining in the game.

Arkansas then forced a number of Baylor turnovers and with 5:31 left had reduced the advantage to 82-79.

Baylor gradually built up a five-point advantage, 90-85, with 2:51 left.

Almer Lee stole the ball to cut the margin to 90-87 but Baylor's William Chapman hit a three-footer with 1:28 left for a 92-87 lead.

Rice Hands TCU First SWC Loss

By TED MEIER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The Raiders of the Rockies, alias the Denver Pioneers, go after their ninth straight victory in college basketball tonight. They play the Air Force.

Denver's streak doesn't compare to that of the Marquette Warriors who made it 31 straight by routing Wisconsin-Milwaukee 98-56 Tuesday night, but it is the longest winning skein for the Pioneers in 21 years.

Coach Jim Karabetsos' team could qualify as the comeback team of the season. After losing six of their first seven games, the Pioneers have bounced back by winning 11 of their last 13 games, including a 93-83 road victory over Oregon, for a 12-8 record to date.

It was another "laugher" as Coach Al McGuire would say, as his nationally second-ranked Warriors bombed Wisconsin-Milwaukee to make their season mark 18-0.

Jim Chones, 6-foot-11 soph, led the Warriors with 21 points.

Villanova, 18th-ranked and the only other team in the Associated Press Top Twenty to see action, enjoyed a similar romp in downing Fairfield 97-60. Howard Porter led the Wildcats with 26 points to up his career total to 1,743.

Luke Witte, Ohio State's 7-foot soph, tipped in a basket to break a 65-65 tie and the Buckeyes went on to trip Purdue 69-67. Joby Wright's two free throws with 24 seconds to go gave Indiana a 71-70 squeaker over Michigan State in another Big Ten clash.

Nebraska wiped out a nine-point deficit and beat Iowa State 69-67 in overtime in the Big Eight. Rice took an 8-0 lead and went to hand Texas Christian its first league defeat 89-63 in the Southwest Conference.

In other SWC games Southern Methodist shaded Texas Tech 93-91 on Gene Phillips' six consecutive free throws in the closing minutes, Texas tripped Texas A&M 78-69 and Baylor edged Arkansas 92-91.

Garrett May Trigger a Lawsuit

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Mike Garrett's decision to stay in professional football and forget a plan to switch to baseball avers an almost certain suit over ballpark jumping.

After insisting for months that he would forego football for a tryout with the Los Angeles Dodgers, the 26-year-old running back announced his surprise decision Tuesday.

"I still lean to baseball, but football is the practical thing for me to do," Garrett said in agreeing to a contract with the San Diego Chargers of the National Football League.

Garrett, a one-time Heisman Trophy winner at Southern California, played four years of a five-year contract with the Kansas City Chiefs. In a mid-season trade, he shifted to the Chargers for a No. 2 draft choice after the fourth game of the 1970 season.

To date, his main contribution to the Chargers has been a two-touchdown performance in the final game of 1970, a 31-13 victory over Kansas City. After that game, Garrett said football was "dehumanizing."

Shaw Moves to Desert Classic Play

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Tom Shaw, a colorful, inconsistent young man of undetermined age — who may be the next big attraction on the pro golf tour — challenged Arnold Palmer for the gallery to play in the first round of the $140,000 Bob Hope Desert Golf Classic.

He can't explain his game — which goes from very very good to horrid — and doesn't attempt to explain his age.

He just skims the latter as 28. That's what the PGA record book shows too. The current one. The 1967 player catalogue lists his birthday as Dec. 13, 1938. Which comes out to 32. He is a 1962 University of Oregon product in his eighth year on the pro tour. And he's made the biggest noise of any player on the swing this season, regardless of age.

Shaw has won two of the five titles up for grabs this season — including last week's $40,000 first prize in the Hawaiian Open — and, naturally, is the leading money winner with almost $70,000. But between the triumph in the Bing Crosby and the title in Hawaii, Shaw twice missed the cut for the final two rounds.

That's not unusual, however. He missed the cut 13 times last season when he lost his exempt

Laver Keeps Command in Tennis Play

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Two left-handed Australians battled Tuesday night in the first round of the Philadelphia International Tennis Championships, but it was defending champion Rod Laver's night all the way.

Laver, who was in command throughout the match, downed Ray Ruffels 6-0, 6-4.

If Laver wins the first prize of the $62,500 tournament, he will receive $10,000, upping his total for the year to $100,000.

Tony Roche, runner-up to Laver the last two years, also overcame a fellow Australian, defeating Phillip Dent, 7-6, 6-3.

Arthur Ashe overpowered his one-time UCLA teammate Charles Pasarell of Puerto Rico, 6-4, 6-2.

In other first-round matches, John Alexander of last year's Australian Davis Cup team beat Marty Riessen 6-4, 7-6; Brian Fairlie of New Zealand beat Mark Cox of Great Britain, 7-6, 7-6; Andres Gimeno of Spain won from Robert Maud, South Africa, 6-2, 6-0; Dennis Ralston, United States, put out Graham Stilwell of Great Britain, 6-1, 6-4; and Nicki Pilic of Yugoslavia defeated Torben Ulrich of Denmark, 6-3, 6-4.

In the women's championship where the first prize is $3,000, second-seeded Rosie Casals of California rallied to defeat Karen Krantzcke of Australia, 3-6, 7-6, 6-0.

In other women's matches Ann Jones of Great Britain beat Stephanie Johnson, United States, 6-0, 6-0; Kerry Melville of Australia defeated Peaches Bartkowicz, two-handed hitting American of Hamtrack, Mich., 6-1, 6-1; and Judy Dalton of Australia put out Cecil Martinez of California, 6-0, 6-1.

Louisiana Teams Head College Poll

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Louisiana State-New Orleans continued to pull away from the rest of the nation's small college basketball powers today.

The Privateers, unbeaten in 18 starts, widened their grip on first place in this week's Associated Press poll, picking up 12 of 20 first place votes cast by sports writers and broadcasters across the country and totaling 365 points.

After leading by five and 22 points their first two weeks atop the poll, the Privateers increased their lead over runner-up Southwestern Louisiana to 57 points. The Ragin' Cajuns received three first-place votes and 308 points.

Third-place Kentucky State and No. 4 Louisiana Tech each polled one top vote, with No. 5 Fairmont, W. Va., getting two and the other one going to No. 15 Stephen F. Austin.

There were no changes among the top seven teams, with Ashland and Tennessee State trailing Fairmont. But unbeaten Assumption climbed from ninth to eighth and Eau Claire State moved up from 11th to ninth

Paige Makes Hall of Fame the Hard Way

NEW YORK (AP) — Satchel Paige took the long, hard way into Baseball's Hall of Fame, but with his rubber arm and unhurried gait, he finally made it.

The legendary pitcher, who was somewhere in his 40s when he made his major league debut and somewhere in his 50s when he finally retired, walked Tuesday through a door marked "special category" and took his place among the other greats in baseball history.

"Technically, he's not in the Hall of Fame," acknowledged Commissioner Bowie Kuhn because old Satch never played the required 10 years in the majors, "but realistically the Hall of Fame is a state of mind—and I think the fans feel that way."

Paige was the first Negro elected in a special category honoring Negro League stars who missed their chance of major league glory because they came along before the color barrier was broken.

"Paige took the former recognition graciously, without a trace of bitterness at being kept out of the majors for 22 years although he was considered one of the finest pitchers in history."

"I'm proud wherever they put me in the Hall of Fame. Quite a few people told me if I was white I would be playing in the big leagues, but I never did feel any bitterness," he said.

Instead, Satch labored between 1926 and 1948 for some 250 Negro teams, most of them for one day on barnstorming tours. He was advertised as "Satchel Paige, World's Greatest Pitcher, guaranteed to strike out the first nine men."

He commanded from $500 to $2,000 to pitch those three innings, and as often as not, he probably did strike out the nine.

In fact, Paige probably struck out more hitters, pitched more innings and won more games than any other pitcher in history—before he even made the majors in 1948 when Bill Veeck signed him with the Cleveland Indians.

Although the oldest rookie in history—he said he was 42—he rang up a 6-1 record in relief as the Indians won the American League pennant.

Staying in great shape and claiming he had never had a sore arm, the 6-foot-3, 180-pound-right-hander added to his legendary exploits by pitching on and off in the majors until

Robertson Proves He Can Do All

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Oscar Robertson might be overshadowed in Milwaukee by Lew Alcindor, but he still can do it all.

The Big O proved it Tuesday night against Detroit as he led the Bucks to a 107-106 victory over the Pistons for Milwaukee's 48th triumph in 59 National Basketball Association games.

Oscar had 25 points to keep the Bucks within 105-103 of Detroit and then passed to Alcindor for the tying basket. Seconds later, he hit Greg Smith with a long pass with 22 seconds to go for the go-ahead basket.

Then, after Terry Dischinger of Detroit connected on only one of two free throws with eight seconds left, it was Robertson who grabbed the vital rebound and dribbled out the remaining seconds.

In other games, Los Angeles held off Cleveland 116-111, Atlanta beat the New York Knicks 114-109, Phoenix stopped Baltimore 120-115, Boston nipped Chicago 90-88 and San Diego defeated Seattle 132-115.

There were no games scheduled in the American Basketball Association.

The largest crowd ever to see a game in Cobo Arena saw the Pistons rally from an eight-point deficit early in the fourth quarter to take two-point leads on three occasions before Robertson's final act.

Alcindor added 38 points while Jimmy Walker and Dave Bing each had 28 for Detroit.

Gail Goodrich hit a season-

1965 when he was somewhere in his 50s. He is now about 65.

Shockley's Conoco of Texarkana won the Annual City Bowling Tournament at Texarkana recently with 3005 pins count.

They are left to right: A. J. Guy, Joe Ceratto Jr., Cecil Phillips all of Texarkana; Gene Fravell and Jerry O'Neal both of Hope.

Propagandist Ali Still Spouting Off

By HUBERT MIZELL

Associated Press Sports Writer
MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Boxing's master propagandist, Muhammad Ali, now accuses the press of "misleading the world into thinking Joe Frazier's got a chance to whup me."

Wide-eyed fans edged closer as Ali began chanting like a tent evangelist.

"Those writers must have amnesia," he raved. "I'm just gonna do a little reminding on March 8."

"Onliest way Joe Frazier gonna beat me," said the defrocked heavyweight champion, "is to knock me out. And he ain't gonna hit the fastest and the bestest heavyweight in the world."

The crowds, paying $1 a head, are getting larger at the second floor fistic palace as the date nears for the showdown between the two unbeaten heavies.

Ali's middle is a tad softer than when he came back from three years of inactivity against Jerry Quarry in October. His weight is 221, six pounds heavier than the man has ever carried into the ring.

"I ain't worrin' about it," he claimed. "I'm fast and I'm strong. And, I'm in good condition ... those are the things that count."

high 42 points for Los Angeles, but the Lakers barely hung on after blowing a 23-2 lead. The surprising Cavaliers still trailed by 13 points entering the final period before cutting the deficit to 107-106. But Jerry West hit a basket, Will Chamberlain blocked several shots and the Lakers were out of danger.

Happy Hairston had 30 points for the Lakers and Dave Sorenson 30 for Cleveland.

Atlanta pulled ahead to stay 74-67 with seven straight points, built the lead to 109-99 and then held off a final New York flurry as the Knicks lost their fourth straight game.

Pete Maravich had 27 points for the Hawks and Willis Reed 24 for New York.

Phoenix overcame 38 points by Baltimore's Earl Monroe and a 94-91 deficit after three periods with ball-hawking defense and Dick Van Arsdale's 29 points.

Dave Cowens hit a basket and a free throw in the final 17 seconds to put Boston over Chicago as the Celtics came from 15 points behind.

John Havlicek, who scored 11 points and grabbed 10 straight rebounds in the final quarter, led Boston with 33 points. Bob Love had 28 for Chicago.

San Diego whipped Seattle for the fifth straight time this season as Elvin Hayes led the way with 36 points and 16 rebounds. Spencer Haywood topped the SuperSonics with 22 points.

Johnny Bench Wants More Money

The Cincinnati Reds have three more contracts in their vault today which is good news for them. None of them bears the signature of Johnny Bench, which isn't such good news for them.

The National League champions added utilitymen Darrel Chaney and Willie Smith and pitcher Ed Sprague Tuesday while carrying on some public negotiating with Bench, 1970's Player of The Year.

Bench, who was the National League's Most Valuable Player with 45 home runs with 145 runs batted in last season, casually suggested that he'd be satisfied with a three-year contract worth oh, say $500,000.

"They're hard people to deal with," said Bench of the Cincinnati front office. "They don't want to pay me too much too soon because of what they'll have to pay me in the future," continued the 23-year-old catcher.

"But I've had as much responsibility as anybody on the club. My talent and ability are the same no matter if I'm 23 or 35. A lot of people are making a lot of money in sports. I want them to pay me what I'm worth."

What Bench thinks he's worth and what the Reds are about to offer may be vastly different, though.

"We'll do our talking with Johnny Bench," said Bob Howsam, the Reds' general manager, saying he felt contract negotiations were a matter between the club and player. He added that he was "not too interested" in three year contracts.

While the Reds and Bench were warming up for their contract talks, other clubs and players were reaching agree-

North's two no-trump call was the Jacoby Two No-trump. The bid has nothing at all to do with no-trump but is a strong raise of partner's major-suit opening. Those players who use this artificial convention must give up the standard 13-15 point two no-trump response but there are compensating advantages.

South's jump to four hearts illustrates one of them. This jump says, "Partner, you have forced us to game. I have no interest in slam because I have a minimum opening bid with no singleton."

The way the cards lie a spade lead by West will defeat the game contract, but West has a normal club lead and makes it. Even with the club lead and club return South can go down if he king or a diamond to the jack.

If he takes time to study all possibilities he should find a play to win against all card combinations.

After winning the second club he plays two rounds of trumps; ruffs dummy's last club and leads a low diamond.

West must play low, whereupon South plays dummy's eight of diamonds. East wins with the nine and is now thoroughly end-played. He doesn't have a club but that doesn't matter since a club lead would allow a ruff in one hand and a spade discard from the other.

If East leads a spade dummy's king is established. Actually East made his best play by returning a diamond. However, this allowed dummy's ace and jack to score. Then South came to his hand with a trump to discard one spade on the diamond king. (Newspaper Enterprise Assn.)

Spasm of Small Muscles Causes Pleurisy Pains

By LAWRENCE E. LAMB, M.D.

Dear Dr. Lamb—Would you kindly write about pleurisy, possible causes and resulting pain and fever? Could this be contracted because of driving with an air-conditioner unit vented directly at the driver? After a recent automobile trip my husband began to have pains in his right chest where the cold air blew at him. It does not get better and the doctor says it could be pleurisy. He has been troubled for two months. Chest X rays, electrocardiograph and other tests are normal. Is there any treatment other than pain killers. Can this be cured or does it become chronic?

Dear Reader—The surface of the lungs and the inner surface of the chest cage are lined with a very thin clear membrane which is called the pleura. Inflammation of this lining is pleurisy. Interestingly enough, there are no pain fibers from this lining over the lung surface, so the pain must come from the chest wall. Many people think that the pain is caused by the inflamed lung surface rubbing against the chest cage. This is probably not true.

The pain appears to be more related to spasm of the small muscles between each of the ribs. When you breathe and the chest wall expands, these muscles move. Like any muscle cramp, the movement causes severe pain. This is why limiting the motion of the chest by tight bandages tends to relieve the pain.

Muscle spasm can indeed be caused by a cool air blowing over the body surface. Severe, sudden pain in the neck muscles can follow sleeping under a fan.

Pleurisy can be caused by a long list of medical disorders. Fortunately, most cases are caused by viral diseases that cause a lot of pain and discomfort but seldom cause any lasting damage or serious illness. The pain is usually far out of proportion to any actual danger, but it is quite severe.

Any infection of the lungs can be associated with pleurisy. This includes tuberculosis, the bacterial and viral diseases, even tumors and rare diseases we call metabolic diseases.

Treatment obviously depends upon the cause. In most cases small doses of aspirin will help a great deal. A heating pad may provide comfort and wrapping the chest tightly with an elastic bandage may minimize pain. Of course, if the underlying cause is a serious medical problem, that too must be treated.

There are other causes for similar chest pain. This includes disorders of the spine and shingles (a virus involvement of the nerve) which may involve one or more spaces between the ribs. I suspect your husband has had trouble long enough that you can forget about shingles.

X rays and other studies are often normal when the problem is the usual viral form. The studies must be done though to be certain that some more serious disease isn't the underlying cause.

Aspirin in doses of six or more a day can affect the

Only 6,000 Removed From Smut List

By MARK BROWN
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans who claim their sensitivities are offended by sexually oriented mail have been slow in registering their feelings with the Post Office.
The Postal Service says only about 6,000 persons have asked to have their names removed from smut peddler's mailing lists since a new federal law promising blanket protection went into effect Feb. 1.
Of that number, about 15 percent incorrectly filled in anti-smut forms available from the nation's 32,000 post offices, postal officials said.
The new law, contained in the Postal Reorganization Act passed by Congress last year, requires senders of sexually oriented ads to remove all persons from their mailing lists who sign up with the Postal Service.
Application forms filled out at local post offices are sent to postal headquarters in Washington for inclusion on a master list which will be made available to mailers of sexually oriented ads at a cost of $5,000 to $10,000.
The mailer then must compare the Postal Service list to his own mailing list and remove names that appear on both. As more people sign up, the Postal Service will send out an updated list to mailers.
Failure to remove a name could result in criminal penalties of up to five years in prison and a $5,000 fine for the first offense. In addition, the Postal Service could seek a civil court order barring further mailings to the person whose name is on the master list.
In announcing last week the forms are available, the Postal Service estimated several million persons would sign up. One official speculated the slow start means the public doesn't know the law is in force.

Environmental Study of Cossatot Aired

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—An Army official testified in U. S. District Court here Tuesday that the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers would have made a more detailed study on the environmental effects of the Gilliam Dam on the Cossatot River if the project had not been more than 60 per cent complete.

Richard Hertzler, chief of civil functions in the office of the Secretary of the Army, said that more comprehensive environmental studies were made by the engineers on new projects than on those already under construction.

Hertzler's statements were made during the second day of a hearing on a suit seeking a permanent injunction to halt work on the dam. Four conservationist groups initiated the suit last Oct. 1.

The National Environmental Protection Act requires federal agencies to evaluate the impact of public works projects on the environment and file reports on their findings with the Council on Environmental Quality.

The Army Engineers contend that a statement that was filed with the council on the Gilliam Dam project is sufficient to meet the requirements of the NEPA, but the conservationist groups contend the report is not sufficient.

Infiltrators Killed by Israeli Army

TEL AVIV (AP) — An Israeli army patrol killed six Arab infiltrators from Syria Tuesday night in a gunfight on the occupied Golan Heights, the Israeli military command reported.

A spokesman said there were no Israeli casualties.
The Israeli command also announced the capture recently of 45 Arab guerrillas who it said were part of "a widespread Al Fatah sabotage network" operating around Hebron, in occupied territory south of Jerusalem.

A spokesman said the guerrillas are accused of committing 19 acts of terrorism in the past 18 months, including an attack on Jerusalem with two Katyusha rockets in December. A house was damaged in the attack but there were no casualties.

An Egyptian spokesman meanwhile brushed off a proposal by Premier Golda Meir that Israel and Egypt agree to a mutual reduction of their armed forces along the Suez Canal. The spokesman in Cairo called the suggestion "a maneuver aimed at escaping the blame of world public opinion."

The spokesman, Mahmoud Hafez, termed Mrs. Meir's statement Tuesday a rejection of Egyptian President Anwar Sadat's demand last week for a partial pullback of Israeli forces along the canal.

He gave no indication, however, that Mrs. Meir's stand would cause the Egyptian government to reconsider its agreement to extend the cease-fire along the canal for another 30 days.

The Israeli army announced that it is prosecuting an officer and 10 soldiers on charges of unprovoked rough treatment of Arab residents in the occupied Gaza Strip.

A spokesman for the military command said three other officers, two of them of high but unspecified rank, had received administrative reprimands for ordering that civilians be roughed up or for failing to keep their men under control.

The charges stem from an investigation ordered by Gen. Haim Bar-Lev, the chief of staff, following a number of complaints by Gaza Arabs.

At U.N. headquarters in New York, Egypt circulated among Security Council members a document charging that Israel had stepped up "repressive and indiscriminate attacks" against civilians in the Sinai Desert and Gaza. Israel denied the charges as "unfounded and unsubstantiated."

Teachers Going to Little Rock Seeking Help

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Hundreds of Arkansas school teachers are expected to be in Little Rock Friday in an attempt to persuade Gov. Dale Bumpers and the legislature that more money is needed for education in the coming biennium.

For the first time, entire school districts are dismissing classes because teachers are requesting permission to come to Little Rock.

Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, said at least two districts have already dismissed classes for Friday and there are indications there will be more to do so.

Public schools at El Dorado and Benton will be closed, the Classroom Teachers Association is working to get classes dismissed in Little Rock and the Dell School District in Mississippi County has reported classes may be dismissed there.

Things Have Quited in Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Belfast was free of bombing and gunfire Tuesday night for the first night in a week as Northern Ireland's embattled government considered whether to prohibit potentially inflammatory funeral processions.

Fighting broke out during the day Tuesday as the coffins of two fallen Roman Catholics were drawn through Protestant districts, the Irish Republic Irish Republican Army members in black berets in escort.

Angry Protestants snatched the flag from one coffin and hurled bricks and bottles at the other one. A policeman was clubbed to the ground before other security forces could intervene.

Prime Minister James Chichester-Clark announced that his government is considering emergency regulations to insure that corteges "cannot with impunity be given the features of provocative political displays."

Irish Republic to the south, its members operate more or less openly in Catholic districts in the North, waging their war to expel the British and unite Protestant Northern Ireland with the Catholic South.

Political and religious leaders throughout the province condemned guerrillas whose land mine killed five civilians on a mountain road Tuesday.

Jack Lynch, prime minister of the republic, also assailed "the evil perpetrators of this malicious and cowardly deed."

In a statement from his Dublin office, Lynch said Ireland would be reunited only by peaceful means and condemned "any group who advocate or use force, whether it be for the reunification of our country or to maintain the status quo."

Police in Belfast said they suspect saboteurs were responsible for a big fire in a timber yard Tuesday. The flames shot more than 100 feet into the air, threatening the harbor district, and more than 70 firemen were called out.
